MOMENI appoints Head of Investor Relations/Business Development

- Florence Fricke-Radoux joined MOMENI in January 2020 as Head of Investor Relations/Business Development

(Hamburg, February 2020) The Hamburg-based MOMENI Group is intensifying the further expansion of its range of specific investment vehicles for institutional investors.

The Head of Investor Relations/Business Development, Florence Fricke-Radoux is responsible for relationship management of institutional clients and business development at MOMENI Group since January 2020. In recent years, the MOMENI Group`s investment volume has increased to more than 5.0 billion euros. With the addition of Florence Fricke-Radoux's position, the Group is continuing to underline its clear growth strategy for the coming years.

Born in France, Florence Fricke-Radoux has extensive expertise and experience in fundraising as well as in setting up and managing real estate funds. Previously, she was Director Business Development in the Real Estate and Private Equity division at HQ Capital and Director Fund Management at Triuva Kapitalverwaltungsgesellschaft (formerly IVG Institutional Funds) in Frankfurt. Florence Fricke-Radoux, who graduated from the European Business School in Paris, started her career at PwC.

„With Florence Fricke-Radoux, we are adding a very experienced and successful manager to our group. In the future we will be able to give investors an even broader access to our various investment strategies. We are also very much looking forward to the further development of new investment funds in which we will be able to successfully implement our extensive real estate knowledge," says Ali-Reza Momeni, founder and owner of MOMENI Group.

About MOMENI

The owner-managed MOMENI Group, with headquarters in Hamburg, is active throughout Germany and is one of the leading investors, specialising in the development and management of high-quality real estate in the inner city locations of major German cities, and also acts as an investment manager for institutional real estate assets. With its three business divisions: Project Development, Investment Management and Real Estate Management, the Group pursues an integrated business model and offers internal expertise at all stages of the investment cycle. With the founding of MOMENI Digital Ventures, in January 2019, the Group has also been investing in innovative and future-oriented young companies with a clear focus on digital and technological innovations in the real estate sector. In recent years, the MOMENI Group has invested a total volume of more than 5.0 billion euros.

The Investment Management division is primarily aimed at national and international institutional investors such as pension schemes, pension funds and insurance companies as well as family offices and foundations. The product range includes, in particular special, real estate funds, institutional club deals and individual managed account or fund solutions in various structures.
